

FISCAL NOTE

HB 2560

February 9, 2006

SUMMARY OF BILL: Authorizes clerks and masters of chancery courts with probate jurisdiction to receive additional pay equal to 10% of their base compensation to compensate them for their additional duties. Any additional compensation will be used in determining the salaries paid to other general officers of the county.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase Local Govt. Expenditures – Not Significant

Assumptions:

- The changes provided by this bill codify current local government procedures.
- Any increase in local government expenditures for the administrative costs associated with such changes is estimated to be not significant.
- Current law authorizes additional compensation for individuals serving as clerks of court for more than one court.
